Serial
No.5. The cadre of Assistant Commissioners.

The cadre of Assistant Commissioners provides 80 places:--

7 Senior Assistant Commissioners, and
73 Assistant Commissioners.

6. Of these, 2 places are not required as shown below:--

1 Bangalore District Treasury Officer.

1 Bangalore Sub Division (not formed).

Therefore the cadre actually provides for 78 places of which 7 are Senior Assistant Commissioners and ..71 Assistant Commissioners.

Total 78

7. The scheme for the separation of Executive and Judicial functions provides for 10 places, viz., 4 Senior Assistant Commissioners, &

6 Assistant Commissioners,

of these 3 City Magistrates are already included in the Civil Service Cadre. Therefore the scheme actually provides for 7 more places of Assistant Commissioners when it fully comes into operation.

8. Thus the total sanctioned number of Assistant Commissioners is:--

11 Senior Assistant Commissioners, and

74 Assistant Commissioners.

Total 85

10. But as the scheme for the separation of the Executive and Judicial functions has at present been introduced only into 4 Districts the actual sanctioned number at present may be taken as $85 - 4 = 81$.

One of the places in the cadre i.e. Registrar, G.R.S. is held by a non-civil service officer under orders issued sometime ago and one place may therefore be left out of account in the number of vacancies available for the civil service.

11. Therefore the number of vacancies existing at present is $81 - 72 = 9$.

12. Five officers of the Civil Service have as the chain of arrangements may be made permanent in the near future. One more vacancy will be created when Mr. P. Gopalaraaj Urs quits the service. Thus there will be in all 7 more vacancies.

13. The total number of vacancies that may be available is 8 plus 7 or 15.

14. The 12 Probationary Assistant Commissioners appointed in January 1918 will have to be confirmed before June 1920 if they qualify themselves fully by passing the examinations. One permanent place among Senior Assistant Commissioners has to be found for Mr. Hiriannaiya recently transferred from the Judicial to the Revenue Department.

15. If 13 out of 15 vacancies are thus filled up, there will be 2 places available in the near future for confirming officers already acting as Assistant Commissioners or who are given the rank and status of Assistant Commissioners.

16. There are, however, at present 8 Assistant Commissioners employed on duties not

17. The selections for these 12 places may be considered in Council, if approved.

18. There are at present about 25 officers acting as Assistant Commissioners for periods varying from 1 to 4 years, of whom 18 officers have fully qualified themselves by passing all the required examinations. The accompanying statement contains the names of these 18 officers arranged according to their rank as sub pro tem or acting Assistant Commissioners in the Civil List and also according to their rank as permanent Amildars. The rank as Amildar may be taken for purposes of confirmation to decide relative seniority.

It is understood that Mr. C. Gopálachar who holds an Assistant Commissioner's place provisionally permanent will be confirmed.
If so, the inclusion of one of provisional appointments shown in para 9 may stand.

If the 3 appointments of City and Special Magistrates are to be included in the additional number of Assistant Commissioners sanctioned in Government Order No. 11053-63/Cts. 247 18-1 dated 17-11-1919, and 4 appointments kept in reserve as stated in para 10, the number of vacancies shown as existing in para 11 is

6. Subject. - Clause v of the schedule.

Appointment of Assistant Commissioners from the subordinate ranks under rule II 2(a) of the Civil Service Rules.

Opinion of the Council.

26.

Eight appointments of Assistant Commissioners may be made provisionally permanent.

The following sub pro tem and acting Assistant Commissioners may be made provisionally permanent:-

1. Mr. S. Reuben,
2. Mr. T. Venkataramaiya,
3. Mr. Srinarasimha Sastri,
4. Mr. H.S. Ramachandra Rao,
5. Mr. T. Hanumantha Rao,
6. Mr. C.B. Lakshmana Rao,
7. Mr. R.A. Narasimha Iyengar,
8. Mr. C. Lakshmana Rao.

The following officers may also be appointed provisionally permanently as soon as vacancies occur:-

9. Mr. E. H. Thompson,

"EXTRACT" Mr. Abdul Aziz Khan.

In paragraph 7 of my Submission Note dated the 10th January 1920 regarding the appointment of Probationary Assistant Commissioners, I stated that proposals for the nomination of officers from the subordinate ranks under Rule II 2 (a) of the Civil Service Rules would be submitted after ascertaining the number of vacancies available and other particulars.

2. There are at present 8 permanent vacancies in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and 7 more permanent vacancies are likely to occur in the near future i.e., during the official year 1920-21. (Vide paragraphs 11 to 13 of Chief Secretary's Note dated the 21st January 1920, verified by the Comptroller).

*pays 4+5 of nbs

3. Out of these 15 permanent vacancies one (Senior Assistant Commissioner's place) has to be given to Mr. S. Hiriyannaiya and 12 have to be reserved for the 12 Probationary Assistant Commissioners appointed in 1918 who may become eligible for confirmation this year. Thus there will only be 2 permanent vacancies for confirmation of acting Assistant Commissioners under Rule II 2 (a) of the Civil Service Rules. But these vacancies will be available only in the near future when the superannuated officers retire.

4. There are, however, 8 permanent Assistant Commissioners employed on other duty as shown below:-

1. Mr. Chokkanna, Forest Settlement Officer.
2. " K. Subba Rao, on Special Duty.
3. " Dharmaraj Chetty, Land Acquisition Officer, Krishnarajasagara.
4. " N. Rama Rao, Superintendent of Sericulture.

6. " Appanniengar, Secretary, Agricultural Committee.
7. " Y. Narasinga Rao, Superintendent, Sandalwood Oil Factory.
8. " Isvaran, Military Department.

As these officers are not likely to revert from their special appointments at least for a period of 3 years, the acting arrangements made in their places may be made provisionally permanent. There may be one or two more similar vacancies in connection with the arrangements for the Census etc. and in connection with the appointment of certain Assistant Commissioners as provisionally permanent Deputy Commissioners.

- 34/ 5. The subject was considered in Council at the meeting held on the 29th January 1920 and the Council recommend that the following 8 officers may be made provisionally permanent Assistant Commissioners.
